HOUSE RESOLUTION 251

By Scroggs

A RESOLUTION to commend Miss Heather Elise Grosshans for extraordinary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Heather Elise Grosshans is one such individual who has distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Representative Larry Scroggs and Curry Todd; Heather's work resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators she assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, she is a graduate of Giles County High School in Pulaski; and

WHEREAS, a junior at the University of Memphis, where she is highly admired by her peers, Heather has achieved academic success while majoring in International Studies, minoring in Philosophy, and participating in numerous extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of her numerous accomplishments, Heather has been awarded the Cecil Humphrey's Presidential Scholarship, and is a member of the Phi Eta Sigma Freshman Honor Society; and

WHEREAS, an active and valued member of the student body, Miss Grosshans served with probity on the Freshman Council as a Senator and on the Student Government Association as a Senator at-large; and

WHEREAS, this self motivated and dedicated young woman also plans to serve as Senator in the College of Arts and Sciences; and

WHEREAS, Heather has a sincere interest in politics and government operations; she served with acumen as a Delegate to the Midwest Model United Nations, and as House Delegate to the Tennessee Intercollegiate State Legislature where she is the current Press Secretary; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her many commitments, Miss Grosshans serves on the Student Ambassador Board and Student Activities Council; and

WHEREAS, she is also a devoted member of the Sigma Kappa Sorority; and

WHEREAS, Heather's tremendous success is a source of pride for her parents, Edward and Deborah Grosshans, her school, and her community; and

WHEREAS, she plans to attend law school at George Washington University in order to pursue her praiseworthy goals of studying International Law; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2000 legislative session, Miss Grosshans has surpassed all criteria with regard to the attributes of a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexity of Tennessee state government and to assist in her studies, Heather Grosshans brought her many abilities and expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2000 session of the One Hundred First General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Heather has performed her many duties with extraordinary insight and decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby commend

Miss Heather Elise Grosshans for outstanding service as a legislative intern and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
